44th Annual Conference
of the International Association of Labour History Institutions (IALHI)

OPENING UP SOCIAL HISTORY REPOSITORIES: NEW TECHNOLOGIES AND NEW METHODS

26 – 28 September 2013
Open Society Archives at the Central European University
Nador utca 9, 1051 Budapest, Hungary

PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2013.

14:00 IALHI Coordination Committee Meeting, Open Society Archives
(Arany Janos Street 32, 5th District, 2nd floor Conference Room)

17:00 Welcome Speech by István Rév, Director, Open Society Archives
Welcome Drink and Guided Tour at OSA holdings

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 2013.

9:30 Registration and Coffee
(CEU Auditorium, Nador 9, 5th District)

10:00 Opening Speech by John Shattuck
President and Rector, Central European University

10:30 General Assembly

11:30 Speech by the new Secretary General

12:30 Lunch

13:30 Post-HOPE-continuation of the Social History Portal

14:30 IALHI projects
Bernhard H. Bayerlein, ZZF
Piotr Wcislik, OSA
Richard Temple, Senate House Library’s Trotskyist holdings

16:00 Post-HOPE Workshop: New Content Providers or Associated Members

17:00 Project Meeting organized by Bernhard H. Bayerlein:
"The XXth Century International Social, Political and Solidarity Movements Internet Portal"

19:00 Dinner
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2013.

8:30  Registration and Coffee

9:15  Introduction

9:30  Keynote address by Professor Jürgen Kocka

10:15  Coffee Break

10:30  SESSION 1: RECONNECTING COLLECTION POLICIES AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

Henk Wals (International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam): TBA
Ioanna Toma (Open Society Archives, Budapest): Mapping "the ordinary". Archives and Paradigms

11:30  Coffee Break

11:45  SESSION 2: REUSING SOCIAL HISTORY DATA

Judit Gárdos, András Lénárt (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Budapest): Challenges of secondary socio-historical analysis on sociological interviews
Nikola Baković (MeĎuopštinski istorijski arhiv, Čačak): Using the Local Archival Sources for the Historical Reevaluation of Socialism. The Serbian Case
Katarzyna Werner, Katarzyna Sawko (Centrum Cyfrowe: Projekt Polska, Warsaw): Digitization of archive resources of the Voivodeship Bureau for Historic Preservation in Opole (Poland)

13:15  Lunch

14:15  SESSION 3: REVEALING LIVES: DOCUMENTING BIOGRAPHIES FOR SOCIAL HISTORY

Eszter Zsófia Toth (Hungarian National Archive, Budapest): The Mark Pittaway Oral History Collection in Hungarian National Archive
Helga Dorner, Andrea Peto (Central European University, Budapest): Digital Repositories of Traumatic Memories: A Possibility for Gendered Analysis?
Massimo Repetto (Archivio Biografico del Movimento Operaio, Genova): Digital biographical archives of the workers’ movement

15:45  Coffee Break

16:00  SESSION 4: REWRITING COLD WAR HISTORY: WHAT IS IN THE ARCHIVAL BOX?

Andrey Sorokin (Russian State Archive of Socio-Political History, Moscow): The Documents of Soviet History: From secrecy to openness (RGASPI experience)
Irina Gordeeva, Olga Zaslavskaya (Russian State University for the Humanities, Moscow / Open Society Institute, Budapest): Hippies Challenge Historians: Samizdat, Informal Press and Private Collections of the New Social Movements in the Former Soviet Union

17:00  Alternative Walking Tour of Budapest, Meeting Point: corner of Nádor Street and Zrínyi Street

19:00  Dinner
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2013.

10:00 Visit to the Monument Park (outdoor museum of Socialist statues)
Meeting Point is next to the Basilica

18:00 Visit to the Szechenyi Thermal Bath