May 19, Thursday

13:00–14:00  Welcome snacks

14:00–14:15  Welcoming remarks: Nadia Al-Bagdadi, Madalina Veres

14:15–16:00  I. In the Service of Empire: Bureaucrats and Scientists

Chair: Jan Hennings

1. Miri Shefer-Mossensohn
   The Bureaucratization of Ottoman Science in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries

2. Ahmet Bilaloglu
   Yirmisekiz-zâde Mehmed Said Efendi and His Materia Medica: An Interpretation

3. Borbála Zsuzsanna Török
   Engineering State Intervention – On Paper

4. David Do Paço
   In the Service of the House of Austria and of Some Others: The Oriental Academy in Vienna, 1754–c. 1810

16:00–16:30  Coffee break

16:30–18:00  II. Habsburg Medical Knowledge

Chair: Tatjana Buklijas

1. Daniela Sechel
   Transnational Knowledge and Imperial Politics: Translations of Medical Texts of the Habsburg Monarchy in the Long Eighteenth Century

2. Lilla Krász
   The Network of Physicians: The Accumulation, Systematization and Distribution of Scientific Medical Knowledge in the Habsburg Empire

3. Ádám Mézes
   Quarantine Stations as Hubs of Imperial Administration and Medicine: Eighteenth-Century Quarantine Diaries from the Habsburg Banat

18:30  Dinner
May 20, Friday

09:00–10:30  III. Translation, Emulation, Adaptation
Chair: Karl Hall

1. Clare Griffin
   Enlightening Answers? Expert Reports and Medical Knowledge in Late Seventeenth- and Early Eighteenth-century Russia

2. Sonia Horn
   Exchanging Knowledge – Connecting Empires. The Example of Medical Education and Practice

3. Ildikó Sz. Kristóf
   Inuit Culture and the Emergence of the Science of Anthropology in Late Eighteenth-Early Nineteenth Century Hungary

10:30–11:00  Coffee Break

11:00–12:30  IV. Professionals, Pioneers and Knowledge Brokers
Chair: Emese Lafferton

1. Katalin Pataki
   Pioneers, Quacks, Professionals: Monastery Pharmacists in Eighteenth-Century Hungary

2. Marianne Klemun
   Entangled Functionalities: Botany, Competition, and Empire. Expeditions Commissioned by the Habsburg Court in the Eighteenth Century

3. Zsolt Török
   From Marsigli to Mikoviny: Enlightenment cartography and Map Making in the Kingdom of Hungary c. 1700

12:30–14:30  Lunch
14:30–16:00  V. Imperial and Trans-Imperial Frameworks

Chair: William O’Reilly

1. Simon Werrett

The Sciences and Russian Imperialism in the Eighteenth Century

2. Harun Küçük

The Entangled Enlightenment of the Ottoman Empire

3. Madalina Veres

Habsburg Scientific Centers in the Age of Enlightened Reform

16:00–16:30  Coffee break

16:30–18:00  VI. Concluding Discussion

László Kontler, Karl Hall, Nadia Al-Baghdadi