The School of Public Policy and International Affairs (SPPIA) invites you to the public lecture

The Democracy Paradox: The Erosion of Democracy as we Knew It and Rebirth of the Quest for Good Political Order

by MICHAEL ZÜRN

Introduction and Opening:
Wolfgang Reinicke, Dean, School of Public Policy and International Affairs

Moderated by:
Carsten Schneider, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science

Date:
Monday, February 20, 2012

Time:
5:30 p.m.

Venue:
CEU Gellner room (Budapest V, Nador u. 9)
- Reception to follow

Professor Michael Zürn is Director of the Research Unit “Transnational Conflicts and International Institutions” at the Social Science Research Center Berlin (WZB) where he also heads the Rule of Law Center. He served as the Founding Dean of the Hertie School of Governance in Berlin from 2004 to 2009. Zürn studied in Denver and Tübingen, where he also received his PhD. He was a visiting professor at the University of Denver and Harvard University. In 1993 he was appointed Professor of International and Transnational Relations at the University of Bremen. Until 2004, Zürn was Chairman of the Collaborative Research Centre “Transformation of the State” in Bremen, funded by the German Research Foundation. His publications have appeared in leading international journals. He is a co-editor of the “Handbook on Multi-Level Governance” (2010) and the author of “Regieren jenseits des Nationalstaates. Globalisierung und Denationalisierung als Chance” (1998).