The School of Public Policy and International Affairs (SPPIA) and the Human Rights Initiative (HRSI) cordially invite you to the public lecture

Trends in International Migration

by Demetrios G. Papademetriou
President, Migration Policy Institute (MPI)

The financial and economic crises, ongoing since 2008, have dramatically affected international migration trends. Will this interruption last or should we expect to revert to familiar patterns, once the global economy recovers? What are the likely challenges that states most impacted by migration will have to face over the next several decades and how can they better prepare to manage them?

Introduction and Opening:

Wolfgang Reinicke, Dean, School of Public Policy and International Affairs

Moderated by:

Boldizsar Nagy, Associate Professor, Department of International Relations and European Studies

Date:

Wednesday, February 29, 2012

Time:

5:30 p.m.

Venue:

CEU Popper room (Budapest V, Nador u. 9)

- Reception to follow

RSVP to Gabriella Kelemen at kulikg@ceu.hu by February 26, 2012