One of the less well known consequences of EU accession was the creation of a new group of donors. After being recipients of aid, new member states became providers of aid. Deciding what to do, where to go and how to do it remain to some extent, open question as does the issue of who to work with. This series will present research on ODA from the region to encourage discussion and debate.

Date: Wednesday, March 6th, 2013
Hungarian language event starts at 15:00 pm
English language event starts at 17:30 pm
Venue: Monument Building, Gellner (103)
Nador 9, 1051 Budapest
Both events are followed by a reception
Contact: lazau-ratza@ceu.hu