Dear Members of the European Parliament,

Bulgarian Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies has long-standing contacts with Central European University along with other Hungarian and international institutions, that were brought to life in the new conditions of 1990s- Europe. These contacts have always yielded positive results and have contributed to the advancement of contemporary scholarship.

In light of the recent developments, Bulgarian Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies expresses its solidarity with CEU, its faculty, staff and students. We are deeply concerned with the current attacks to its existence that came as a result of the amendments of the Hungarian national legislation.

We believe that CEU should be given a chance to continue fulfilling its mission in Budapest.

#We stand with CEU

Yours sincerely,

The Bulgarian Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies
