Ms. Zita Horváth, Deputy State Secretary for Higher Education

Dear Minister Palkovics, Minister Gulyás, Minister Kásler, State Secretary Bódis, Deputy State Secretary Horváth:

I am pleased to provide the following update to my letter of June 20, 2018, (attached), concerning Central European University's educational activities in New York State:

In addition to the Advanced Certificate program in Inequality Analysis which Central European University continues to offer at its location in Annandale-on-Hudson, New York, in collaboration with Bard College; beginning in the Fall 2018 academic semester, Central European University will also be operating an extension site New York City, New York, at which the University will be delivering courses in its registered two-year Master of Arts (M.A.) program in International Relations.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

Leslie E. Templeman, Director
