

Open Learning Initiative - University Preparatory Program

End-of-Year Conference

Friday, 16 June 2017
Monument Building, Room 201
09:30 - 16:00

PROGRAM

09:30 - Registration opens

09:45 - Opening Remarks by Michael Ignatieff, CEU President and Rector

10:00 - 11:00 - Talk followed by Q&A: Tahir Zaman, SOAS, University of London
Proliferating Noble Sanctuaries: The University and Traditions of Refuge.

Live stream: <http://www.ustream.tv/channel/central-european-university>

11:00 - 12:00 - Student Presentations: 1st Panel - Chaired by Edward Branagan, CEU
School of Public Policy

Akileo Mangeni (Public Policy) - Marginalisation of Refugees and Asylum Seekers in the Health Care System: A Hungarian Case Study

Mussa Idriss Mussa (Sociology & Social Anthropology) - *Two Community Places in the 8th
District of Budapest Caught in the Game of Gentrification.*

Mohammad Samir Al Dalaa (Political Science and International Relations) - The Rise of the Far Right in France – The Case of the National Front

Sami Gerezghiher (Sociology & Social Anthropology) - Are Online Games Really Online?

12:00 - 13:00 - Lunch Break

13:00 - 14:00 - Student presentations: 2nd Panel - Chaired by Michael Kanu, SJD CEU
International Business Law

Kutaiba Al Hussein (International Business Law) - Could Bitcoin Compete with Traditional Currencies?

Mahmoud Zidan (Business Studies) - Big Data Insights: Present and Future

Sam Shoushian (Economics) - The Effect of Openness to Immigration on GDP levels: An Empirical Survey

Amir Mohamed (Business Studies) - Deconstructing the Financial Crisis of 2008

14:00 - 15:00 - Round table on Education, Marginalisation, Citizenship: Rethinking the Role and Boundaries of the University

With

Hila Azadzoy, Kiron University for Refugees

Mariann Dosa, School of Public Life

Tahir Zaman, SOAS, University of London

Moderated by Celine Cantat, CEU OLive

Live stream: <http://www.ustream.tv/channel/central-european-university>

15:00 - 15:15 - Closing Remarks

Reception to follow.