

OSUN supported projects at CEU 2020-2022

	Project title	Purpose	Lead CEU unit
1	Global Teaching Fellowship Program	Extending GTFP to OSUN partner universities: CEU doctoral students and recent graduates teaching for a full academic year at partner universities in the Global South, with mentoring support from CEU's Center for Teaching and Learning	ACRO (Monica Jitareanu: JitareanuM@ceu.edu, Agnes Leyrer: LeyrerA@ceu.edu)
2	Socrates Project	Providing university-level humanities and social sciences courses and promoting active learning and critical thinking among the educationally disadvantaged and impoverished adults in the wider communities in Vienna, Budapest and Berlin	Community Engagement Office (Flora Laszlo: LaszloF@ceu.edu)
3	Democracy Institute	Core support to the DI for the first two years of operation, including doctoral and postdoctoral fellowships, workshops and the development of the DI Open Platform (Review of Democracy)	Democracy Institute (Éva Fodor: FodorE@ceu.edu)
4	Global Institute of Advanced Study	Junior and Senior Fellowships, training and mentoring programs focused on linking established and less advanced researchers for support and promotion of research excellence among OSUN partners	Institute of Advanced Studies (Nadia Al-Bagdadi: albagdadin@ceu.edu)
5	ExEd Hub	Developing a package of executive and professional programs and supporting access to these study opportunities by disadvantaged communities and groups; professional development of university administrators	ExEd Hub (Lydia Wazir-Staubmann: wazir-staubmannl@ceu.edu)
6	Open Society Research Platform (2021-2022)	Supporting inter-and multidisciplinary research and debate on the concept of open society, its epistemological, theoretical and methodological value and role, and promoting venues for education, policy reflection and analysis, and engagement beyond academia, informed by this research	Yehuda Elkana Center for Higher Education (Christof Royer: RoyerC@ceu.edu)
7	PhD dissertation write-up (COVID relief)	Supporting the successful completion of doctoral studies, including research and dissertation write-up, of CEU doctoral students negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic	Financial Aid (Ágnes Batory: BatoryA@ceu.edu)
8	OSUN Threatened Scholars Integration Initiative	Promoting and supporting the integration of threatened scholars (scholars at risk) from around the world in academic programs, research and outreach of OSUN institutions, through residential and virtual affiliations; support to threatened students (an OSUN-wide program administered by CEU)	Yehuda Elkana Center for Higher Education (Oleksandr Shtokvych: ShtokvychO@ceu.edu)
9	OSUN Artificial Intelligence Working Group	Creating a network of researchers with interests in artificial intelligence - the OSUN Artificial Intelligence Working Group, that would meet regularly through training, research and other forms of collaboration and exchange	Department of Philosophy (Tim Crane: timcrane@ceu.edu)
10	Postgraduate Fellowship in Sustainability and Climate	Development and coordination of a range of collaborative educational and research initiatives between CEU and OSUN partners focused on interdisciplinary study, community engagement and policy reform in the areas of energy resources, rural sustainability, urban development and climate change adaptation	Department of Environmental Sciences and Policy (Laszlo Pinter: PinterL@ceu.edu)
11	OSUN Global Observatory on Academic Freedom (2021-2022)	Research Fellowship, development of annual report, case studies, resources repository and conference to advance formulation of the concept of academic freedom and documentation of infringements and good practices and actors worldwide	Yehuda Elkana Center for Higher Education (Milica Popovic: PopovicM@ceu.edu)
12	OSUN Hubs for Connected Learning	Supporting student learning and access to connected/blended education models and offering foundational level university coursework	Yehuda Elkana Center for Higher Education (Oleksandr Shtokvych: ShtokvychO@ceu.edu)

13	OSUN Summer University 2021	Delivering eighteen interdisciplinary Summer University courses online, developed by CEU and OSUN partners	Summer University (Eva Gedeon: GedeonE@ceu.edu)
14	GLOBALED - Education Policy and Action Lab	Planning and delivery of the first cycle of the OSUN GLOBALED Certificate Program - a stackable micro-credential combining Coursework and Practicum for students in the field of policy and practice in educational development globally.	Department of Public Policy (Kata Orosz: OroszK@ceu.edu)
15	OSUN Transnational Politics	Teaching 3 courses in MA in Global Studies at CEU, covering stipends and travel costs for 10 CEU students spending Fall term in New York	Department of International Relations (Alex Astrov: AstrovA@ceu.edu)
16	Roma Programs: Racial Equity in Higher Education	Funding BA preparatory, BA scholarship and mentoring, MA preparatory, MA scholarship and mentoring, and a PhD scholarship programs for Roma students	Romani Studies Program (Angela Kocze: KoczeA@ceu.edu)
17	Rethinking Economic Policy to Address Inequality and Poverty	Offering virtual and physical student exchanges and student conferences to prepare students to work on economic inequality and poverty in government, academia and the non-profit sector	Department of Economics and Business (Adam Zawadowski: zawadowskia@ceu.edu)
18	Open Learning Initiative (OLive)	Providing undergraduate and graduate preparation programs (OLive University Preparatory Program and OLive Weekend Program) for refugees in Budapest, Vienna, Berlin and London, in partnership with Bard College Berlin and University of East London	OLive (Prem Kumar Rajaram: RajaramP@ceu.edu)
19	Science Shop	Providing independent participatory research support in response to concerns experienced by civil society by linking community organizations who need data and better understanding of issues at hand that can be obtained through research with students who are interested in carrying out a project as part of their degree	Community Engagement Office (Flora Laszlo: LaszloF@ceu.edu)
20	CEU-OSUN Budapest Campus	Establishing long-term academic operations in Budapest, extending CEU's founding mission of serving the Central European region: teaching and learning, research, academic outreach/civic engagement and cultural activities	Multiple units
21	Policy Labs	Promoting engaged scholarship and innovative pedagogies to advance student learning and faculty exchange in policy and practice through practice-based applied research in partnership with external organizations, typically civil society, NGOs, INGOS, UN and its specialized agencies, and private sector	Department of Public Policy (Andrew Cartwright: cartwrighta@ceu.edu)
22	GEOHub: OSUN Research and Training Hub on Geospatial Technologies	Improving the use of geospatial technologies by the OSUN partners to enhance their research/teaching and increase competitiveness - establishing Geo Innovations Hubs in the OSUN core areas	Department of Environmental Sciences and Policy (Victor Lagutov: lagutov@ceu.edu)
23	Collaborating for Rural Sustainability (CORUSUS)	Strengthening teaching, learning and research by cultivating cooperation to address the sustainability of rural livelihoods in South Africa, Kyrgyzstan, and Lebanon, whilst bolstering the sharing of knowledge and experience between faculty and students of partner institutions	Department of Environmental Sciences and Policy (Brandon Anthony: AnthonyB@ceu.edu)
24	Developing Teaching Professionals for Global Higher Education (DTP)	Providing pedagogical training, mentoring, and ongoing support to early-career teachers (PhD students; postdoctoral researchers; and new, junior faculty), faculty in the Global South, and faculty engaged in diversity and inclusive teaching initiatives in OSUN	Center for Teaching and Learning (Michael Kozakowski: kozakowskim@ceu.edu)
25	Global Corruption Observatory	Setting up a new knowledge and data hub for anti-corruption researchers, policy makers, journalists, and civil society actors and actively support stakeholders in using new and innovative datasets, indicators, and methods for anti-corruption research, teaching/training, advocacy and policy making	Department of Public Policy (Mihaly Fazekas: fazekasm@ceu.edu)
26	OSUN Graduate Mobility	Global mobility scheme for Masters and Doctoral students designed collaboratively with OSUN partner institutions, for study and research, including the tuition exchange for self-funded students and needs-based mobility support grants for disadvantaged students	ACRO (Agnes Leyrer: LeyrerA@ceu.edu, Ruth Verweijen: verweijenr@ceu.edu)

27	OSUN Modular Doctoral Fellowships	Providing support to junior faculty at OSUN partner institutions enrolling in CEU Doctoral studies programs that allows them to complete their work towards a doctoral degree while remaining in teaching positions at home institutions	Yehuda Elkana Center for Higher Education (Oleksandr Shtokvych: ShtokvychO@ceu.edu)
28	Experimental Humanities Collaborative Network	Small action research grants for faculty and students aimed at rethinking the engagement in the humanities in light of changing technologies, an increasingly connected global landscape, the ongoing ecological crisis, and calls to create more inclusive universities	Department of History, YECHE (Sanjay Kumar: KumarS@ceu.edu)
29	Network Course Antisemitism, Holocaust, Colonialism, Gender: Connecting the Conversations	Developing and implementing an OSUN Network Course for the winter term of 2021-2022, which will promote new teaching and thinking about the relationship between four distinct, but overlapping, areas of inquiry: antisemitism, the Holocaust, colonialism, and gender	Department of Gender Studies (Andrea Peto: PetoA@ceu.edu)
30	Network Courses Feminism and Community and Digital Theatres	1) Examining a variety of feminist projects and their distinctive shapes, developing practices and theoretical frameworks geared toward assessing, questioning and refashioning women's places, voices and legal status in their communities, thus also addressing notions of community, collectivity, and democracy; 2) examining the changes to and future of the performing arts in the aftermath of the global COVID-19 pandemic	Department of Gender Studies (Francisca de Haan: dehaanf@ceu.edu), Department of History (Sanjay Kumar:
31	OSUN Summer University 2022	Delivering ten interdisciplinary Summer University courses developed by CEU and OSUN partners and four CEU SUN courses; scholarship support for 270 SUN participants	Summer University (Eva Gedeon: GedeonE@ceu.edu)
32	OSUN Global Observatory on Academic Freedom (2022-2023)	Research Fellowship, development of annual report, case studies, resources repository and conference to advance formulation of the concept of academic freedom and documentation of infringements and good practices and actors worldwide	Yehuda Elkana Center for Higher Education (Milica Popovic: PopovicM@ceu.edu)
33	Open Society Research Platform (2022-2023)	Supporting inter-and multidisciplinary research and debate on the concept of open society, its epistemological, theoretical and methodological value and role, and promoting venues for education, policy reflection and analysis, and engagement beyond academia, informed by this research	Yehuda Elkana Center for Higher Education (Christof Royer: RoyerC@ceu.edu)
34	Bard-CEU OSUN Collaboration Support	The grant provides funding for teaching, research and civic engagement collaborations between CEU and Bard College faculty and programs and compensation for CEU faculty participation in review and program committees of Bard-led OSUN programs	Yehuda Elkana Center for Higher Education (Oleksandr Shtokvych: ShtokvychO@ceu.edu)