

Global Economic Relations Postgraduate Specialization Program - Curriculum

| Semester   | Course  | Credit                                       | Mandatory | Mandatory elective | Elective |   |
|---|--|---|------------------|---------------------------|-----------------|---|
| Fall   | Academic Writing   | 1   | x                |                           |                 |   |
|   | Research Design and Methods I  | 2   | x                |                           |                 |   |
|   | International Relations Concepts and Theories                                | 4   | x                |                           |                 |   |
|   | International Relations Theory   | 4   |                  | x                         | x               |   |
|   | Foreign Policy Analysis  | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Strategy, Security, and Contemporary Warfare                                 | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Borders and Bordering Practices in World Politics                            | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Courts as Global Policy Actors   | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | International Law in a Turbulent World                                       | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | The Other in European History and Politics                                   | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Key Concepts of Russian Foreign Policy: Past and Present                     | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Worldly Philosophers of Capitalism, Democracy and Development                | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Ideas in International Political Economy: The case of (economic) nationalism | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Political Economy of the EU  | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | International Political Economy  | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Knowing, Narrating, (re)Writing International Relations                      | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Data Analysis 1a: Foundation of Data management in R                         | 2   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Data Analysis 2: for Foundation of Statistics                                | 2   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Data Analysis 3: Pattern discovery and regression analysis                   | 2   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Corporate Governance   | 2   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Economics of Law   | 2   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Finance  | 2   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Macroeconomics and Public Institutions                                       | 2   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Political Economy of International Money                                     | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Transition Economics   | 2   |                  |                           | x               |   |
|   | Winter  | Research Design and Methods II                      | 2                | x                         |                 |   |
|   |  | Business Economics                                  | 2                | x                         |                 |   |
|   |  | Economic Inequality: Interdisciplinary perspectives | 4                |                           |                 | x |
|   |  | Political Economy of Development                    | 4                |                           |                 | x |
|   |  | Illiberal Capitalism                                | 4                |                           |                 | x |
| Hierarchies in International Relations: Cultures of Inequality  |  | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
| European Security   |  | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
| Critical Security Studies                                       |  | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
| Nationalism, Populism and Conflict Management in Eastern Europe |  | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |
| Dark Legacies: Coming to terms with Europe's twentieth century  |  | 4   |                  |                           | x               |   |

|  |  |   |  |  |   |
|--|--|---|--|--|---|
|  | Foundations of the Contemporary International System               | 4 |  |  | x |
|  | International and European Refugee Policy and Law                  | 4 |  |  | x |
|  | Visual Politics  | 4 |  |  | x |
|  | (De)Militarisms  | 4 |  |  | x |
|  | (Mis)performing World Politics                                     | 4 |  |  | x |
|  | Sovereignty and Humanitarianism                                    | 4 |  |  | x |
|  | World orders in the making   | 4 |  |  | x |
|  | Competition Policy: Economics in Applying European Competition Law | 2 |  |  | x |
|  | Fiscal Policy in Practice  | 2 |  |  | x |
|  | Global Economy: Emergence and Current Issues                       | 2 |  |  | x |
|  | Health Policy  | 2 |  |  | x |
|  | International Economic Policy                                      | 2 |  |  | x |
|  | Labor Economics  | 2 |  |  | x |