STUDIUM Fee-for-Service Health Insurance – Terms and Conditions (STUDIUM22_2)

These general terms and conditions of STUDIUM Fee-for-Service Health Insurance (STUDIUM21) (hereinafter: Policy Conditions or General Conditions) set out the standard conditions for STUDIUM Fee-for-Service Health Insurance offered by Generali Biztosító Zrt. (hereinafter: insurance company), provided that the insurance policy (hereinafter: Insurance Policy or Policy) has been concluded by reference to these general conditions.

In the case of matters not regulated by these general conditions, the insurance policy shall be governed by the provisions the Customer Information (Customer Information and General Provisions Governing Insurance Policies), as well as the applicable provisions of the Civil Code and other effective Hungarian regulations.

In the event of discrepancy between the Customer Information and General Provisions Governing Insurance Policies, an integral part of the insurance policy, and these policy conditions, the provisions of these policy conditions shall prevail.

Under the insurance policy, the Insurance Company undertakes to provide coverage for the insured risks defined in these general conditions and pay out the insurance benefits if an insured event occurs and the insurance claim is grounded, while the Policyholder undertakes to pay the insurance premium.

SECTION 1 Definitions

1.1. The Insured's Declaration is a numbered written document which contains the Insured's legal statements and declarations with respect to the health insurance policy, as well as information regarding the rights and obligations of the Insured, the name of authorities and institutions which the insurance company’s confidentiality obligation shall not apply to, and a loss payable clause with respect to the payment of benefits, which forms an integral part of the Insured’s Declaration to which it is annexed. The Insured's Declaration constitutes an integral part of the insurance policy.

1.2. Disease (illness): any deviation from or interruption of the normal structure or function of the human body.

1.3. Accident: one-time, external physical impact and/or chemical exposure which the insured suffers beyond his/her control or is unwillingly exposed to during the coverage period, and as a result of which the insured suffers permanent health impairment or dies.

1.4. Medical care: any and all medical and health care activities pursued by the health care provider in possession of an operation permit issued by the health care supervisory authority, and which aims at examining and treating the insured, caring for, attending him/her, decreasing pain and suffering and for the purpose of the above, the processing of the patient's examination documents in order to preserve the insured person's health, as well as for the prevention, early recognition, establishment, treatment of illnesses, averting dangers of life, improving the condition occurred due to attaches, or as a consequence of accidents and for the purpose of preventing further condition deterioration.
Health care shall furthermore include activities related to medications, bandage, medical aids, medical care in accordance with effective legislation, and patient transport.

1.5. Primary Care (availability of a primary care physician or general practitioner): primary (non-specialist) health care provided by a PCP, GP or similar, which is generally available and necessary as a result of illness or accident.

1.6. Specialized medical care: health care services received by the insured pursuant to a referral of a primary care physician.

1.7. Healthcare Provider (medical facility): any private healthcare entrepreneur, legal entity or organization without a legal personality, regardless of ownership and maintenance arrangement, which is entitled to provide medical and health care services under current legal regulations in possession of a license of operation issued by a public administrative body of healthcare in respect of Hungary. For the purposes of these policy conditions, health care service providers shall not include sanatoriums, rehabilitation institutes, thermal or hydro-mineral establishments, asylums and care centers for patients with mental disorders and other psychiatric diseases, geriatrics, chronic institutes, social homes, alcohol and drug detoxification institutes (hereinafter jointly referred to as: other health care institutions), even if these provide health care services, or departments of health care institutions which provide health care services in line with the operations of health care institutions as defined herein (for the purposes of this section, hereinafter: department), provided that the insured person has received services in line with the specialization of the other health care institution or of the department.

1.8. Designated healthcare service provider: the health care service provider contracted with the Insurance Company to render health care services, and specifically named on the Health Insurance Card by the Insurance Company.

1.9. Outpatient care: the medical treatment of the insured required as a result of an accident or illness, and provided by a physician or specialist, unless such medical care qualifies as same-day surgical care or inpatient care (hospitalization).

1.10. Same-day surgery: an elective, scheduled surgical procedure within the meaning assigned to it by law performed in a duly licensed medical facility, which does not require an overnight hospital stay and the patient may be escorted home after an observation period of no longer than 24 hours following the patient's admission to the treating facility, provided that on the basis of the patient’s medical test results – and pursuant to a medical expert opinion in accordance with the rules of the medical profession – such a surgery is necessary and may be performed.

1.11. Inpatient care shall be provided for any person who, as a result of an accident or illness, is hospitalized in a medical facility (Health Care Provider) for more than one days to receive medical care, and the person spends every night during his/her hospitalization between admission and release in such medical facility in connection with the medical treatment. The insured shall be hospitalized for multiple days if his/her release from the health care institution is on a later day than that of his/her admission.

1.12. Emergency care is provided in the event of a sudden change in the Insured's health or condition as a consequence of which the Insured's life would be at direct risk, or could suffer severe or permanent injury to health without receiving immediate medical attention. In such a case, the emergency services number must be called.

1.13. Emergency out-of-hours service: medical facilities that are established and operated within the public health care system for the treatment of cases which require urgent care, and that provide continuous availability of medical care outside daily working hours.

1.14. Prepaid health care: health care services provided by a person or institution duly authorized to render health care services, received by the Insured in medically justified cases, where the costs have been prepaid to the service provider directly by a person or entity other than the Insurance Company.
1.15. Health insurance card: A card bearing the same serial number as that of the insured’s declaration referred to in Clause 1.1, issued by the insurance company containing the most important data related to the insurance, which shall be proof of the insurance coverage at the Health Care Service Providers.

1.16. Annual limit: the upper threshold of the insurance company’s total benefit payment obligation in relation with the insured's health care treatment during the whole term of the insurance coverage (max. 12 months) applicable to the insured and with respect to the particular benefit types (annual limit), as specified in the STUDIUM Insurance Product Information Document, an integral part of the policy, in excess of which the Insurance Company is not required to pay additional benefits. The Contracting Parties expressly agree that, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6:461 of the Civil Code, the Insurance Company may apply the reduction of the cover pursuant to this clause without advising the Policyholder thereof and without notifying the fee for maintaining the amount of insurance cover at the same time as the service is provided.

1.17. Sublimit: the upper limit of the Insurance Company’s benefit payment obligation specified in health insurance policy as a part of the annual limit in respect of certain named benefit types included in the Insured's medical care during the particular period of insurance (policy period), provided that the Insurance Company applies such limits. The Contracting Parties expressly agree that, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6:461 of the Civil Code, the Insurance Company may apply the reduction of the cover pursuant to this clause without advising the Policyholder thereof and without notifying the fee for maintaining the amount of insurance cover at the same time as the service is provided.

1.18. Deductible: a lower limit of the Insurance Company’s benefit payment obligation set out in the STUDIUM Product Information Document, which is to be applied and interpreted separately to every insured event and insured person, and which corresponds to an amount which the insured shall himself/herself cover with respect to the insured's medical care, if the Insurance Company applies such a limit.

1.19. Nursing: a group of care services and procedures of nursing directed to improve health status, to preserve and reinstate health, to stabilize patient status, to prevent diseases by preserving the patient’s human dignity, and by preparing and involving the patient’s surroundings in nursing tasks.

1.20. Healthcare (medical) document, documentation: records, registers or data recorded otherwise, containing healthcare and personal identification data related to the treatment of the patient, prepared under current regulations and in compliance with healthcare and medical professional requirements, disclosed to healthcare staff in the course of providing healthcare services, regardless of data carrier or form. For the purposes of the general conditions, healthcare documents specified by law shall particularly include the following documents also partially regulated by law: outpatient records, hospital discharge summary, surgery description, examination records, nursing and care documentation, test findings, medical expert opinion, laboratory records, images made during diagnostic or histology tests, prescriptions (copy), referrals (copy).

1.21. Medication, dressings and bandages, durable medical equipment: only those agents, accessories and means shall be deemed as medication, dressings and bandages, durable medical equipment which are registered and recognized in Hungary as medication, dressings and bandages, or durable medical equipment. Lenses for the correction of vision (glasses, contact lenses, glass for vision, etc.), tools for improve hearing and materials and means used in dental care (artificial teeth, prostheses, fillings, implants, braces, substances and tools to whiten teeth etc.) are not qualified as durable medical equipment. Contraceptives, emergency contraceptive pills (morning after pills), condoms, etc. are not considered medication.
1.22. Treatment: medical activities performed by special healthcare staff aimed to cure diseases, stabilize a patient’s medical condition, and to relieve pain (or other complaints) using diagnostic results.

1.23. Test (medical): a healthcare activity aimed to survey the insured’s medical conditions, to preserve his/her health, to test for diseases, injuries, health impairments, consequences of accidents and/or any risks thereof, to diagnose specific disease(s), to establish prognosis and any change thereof, and to check the effectiveness of medical treatment.

1.24. Medical case management: the arrangement and coordination of medically necessary health care services (in particular, elective outpatient and inpatient care) for the insured.

1.25. Fee for Service insurance: payment of the costs of medical and health care services – partially or entirely, in the form of insurance benefits – under the coverage of an insurance policy subject to the terms and conditions set out and stipulated therein.

Section 2 General Provisions

2.1. Parties to the insurance policy (Insurance Company, Policyholder, insured and beneficiary)

2.1.1. The insurance company is Generali Biztosító Zrt (hereinafter: Insurance Company) which shall, in consideration of the insurance premium payment, cover the insured risks during the insurance period specified in the policy, and undertakes the obligation to reimburse the costs of services set forth in these policy conditions.

2.1.2. The Policyholder is Közép-európai Egyetem (Central European University), CEU Educational Services Nonprofit Ltd., and the Central European University of Budapest Foundation (acting on behalf of these organizations by proxy: Central European University), which concludes the insurance policy with the Insurance Company and commits to paying the insurance premium. The Policyholder of the insurance policy concluded pursuant to these policy conditions is not a consumer. Consumer shall mean any natural person acting for purposes which are outside his trade, business or profession.

2.1.3. The Insured may be a natural person whose life or health is covered in the insurance policy with respect to specific insured events.

2.1.4. For the purposes of these terms and conditions, an insured person may be a private individual who has reached the age of 18 but has not yet reached the age of 65 and is a student/employee/contracted worker/fellow or researcher with the Policyholder during the policy period or the insurance coverage, provided that such person is not insured under the national social insurance scheme in Hungary and has completed and signed the insured's declaration and the Health Insurance Card to apply for insurance coverage under the insurance policy taken out by the Policyholder.

The insured may also be a private individual close relative of a person who is a student/employee/contracted worker/fellow or researcher of the Policyholder, who is who has reached the age of 18 but has not yet reached the age of 65 and who lives in the same household as the person defined above, resides in Hungary and who, or whose legal representative, expressly applies for insurance coverage under this insurance policy by signing an the Insured's Declarations and the Health Insurance Card.

Persons who are students/employees/contracted workers/fellows or researchers as well as the close relatives of such persons may only be insured under the policy for a maximum period of 12 months.

Close relative: for the purposes of these policy conditions, close relative means a spouse, civil partner, registered partner and child (including stepchildren, foster children and adopted children). The existence of a close family relationship must be evidenced by a birth certificate or an extract from the register of civil partnership declarations kept by a notary public.
2.1.5. For the purposes of these policy conditions, no one engaged in the following occupations or pursuing the following activities may be insured: stuntmen, circus artists, equilibrists, test pilots, flight test pilots, parachute jumpers, jet plane crew in the army, bodyguards, commando staff, foreign legionnaires, peacekeepers, secret agents, armed guards, armored car personnel, specialists or officers serving in the army who are exposed to high levels of risks during their activities (e.g. bomb experts, divers).

2.1.6. The beneficiary of this insurance is the insured person.

2.2. The execution of the insurance contract and the conclusion of the insurance
2.2.1. The insurance policy is concluded by execution of a written agreement by and between the Policyholder and the Insurance Company.
2.2.2. In order to add new insured persons to the coverage of the insurance policy (extension of coverage), a written consent of the particular insured needs to be obtained. This may be done so if the new insured duly completes and signs the Insured's Statement (hereinafter: Insured's Statement) as well as obtains the Health Insurance Card. The Insured's Declaration constitutes an integral part of the insurance policy. The Insured is required to complete all the prescribed declarations with complete and true information.
2.2.3. The Insurance Company does not carry out underwriting.
2.2.4. Any insurance premium paid by the Policyholder prior to the conclusion of the insurance policy or the extension of coverage shall be deemed as an advance premium, which the Insurance Company will handle free of interest.
If the insurance policy or the extension of coverage is concluded, the advance premium shall count in full against the insurance premium. If the insurance policy or the extension of coverage is not concluded, the Insurance Company shall refund the advance premium to the Policyholder.
2.2.5. The Policyholder may propose the amendment or modification of the insurance policy or the coverage options, and may add or remove insured parties to or from the insurance coverage. The insured's consent is not required for the conclusion, amendment, modification or termination of the insurance policy.
2.2.6. Pursuant to the agreement of the Policyholder and the Insurance Company, each insured person may only have one STUDIUM cover for any one period of insurance.

2.3. Commencement of the insurance coverage, waiting period
2.3.1. The insurance coverage of the particular insured shall commence at 0 a.m. of the day following receipt of the duly and fully completed Insured’s Declaration and Health Insurance Card by the Insurance Company, provided that the Policyholder has paid the first insurance premium in respect of the particular Insured in full to the Insurance Company.

2.3.2. The Insurance Company does not stipulate a waiting period in the insurance policy.

2.4. The policy period and the term of the insured’s coverage
2.4.1. The health insurance policy between the Policyholder and the Insurance Company is concluded for an indefinite period, on the understanding that the duration of the insured’s coverage will correspond to the duration of the insured’s enrollment with the Policyholder.
2.4.2. The insured’s coverage will commence at the time specified in Clause 2.3.1. and will be terminated in the cases and at the dates specified in Clause 2.5.1. The period of insurance is specifically indicated on the insured’s declaration.
2.5. Termination of the insurance and the insurance cover of the insured
2.5.1. The insurance cover for the particular Insured terminates:
a) at the date specified on the insured’s declaration (at the end of the insurance period), or
b) if the insurance policy taken out by the Policyholder from the Insurance Company terminates for any reason, or
c) in the event of non-payment of the premium, after 30 days from the due date of the premium payable for the particular insured person, without a separate payment reminder to this effect sent by the Insurance Company, including the setting of a grace period, or
d) if the Insured's active enrollment as a student or employment/service contract and/or fellow/researcher status with the Policyholder terminates for any reason, or if the employment or fellow/researcher status of a close relative of the Insured living in the same household as the Insured with the Policyholder terminates, at the end of the current insurance period, or
e) at the end of the policy period in which the insured reaches the age of 65, save for the case when the Insurance Company, subject to an individual underwriting, agrees to provide the coverage even after such age limit has been reached by the insured, or
f) if the insured’s employment, service contract, student enrollment and/or research fellowship with the Policyholder terminates for any good reason, or if the employment, service contract, student enrollment and/or research fellowship of a close relative living in the same household with insured is terminated with the Policyholder.
g) if the insured dies, at the time of the death,

2.6. Geographical limit
2.6.1. The insurance coverage is limited to the territory of Hungary, and applies to medical care as well as medical and health care services received in Hungary, subject to the provisions of these policy conditions.

2.7. Rights and obligations of the parties to the insurance policy
2.7.1. The Policyholder is required to inform the insured persons of the content of the policy conditions and of any amendments made thereto.
The Insured may not replace the Policyholder in the insurance policy.
2.7.2. The obligation to disclose information means that the Policyholder and the insured are required to declare to the insurance company, when completing the insurance application, all circumstances which may be relevant for underwriting purposes and which they knew or ought to have known. The parties shall fulfil their obligation of disclosure by providing truthful answers to the insurance company's written questions.
2.7.3. The obligation to notify changes means that the Policyholder and the Insured must, during the policy period, give written notification of any change in any relevant condition specified or included in the insurance policy within 5 days following such change. Relevant condition shall include everything that the insurance policy provides for or which the insurance company has asked in writing and was required to be stated.
2.7.4. The insurance company shall be entitled to verify any disclosed data.
2.7.5. If the obligation to disclose information and notify changes is infringed, the insurance company shall be exempt from payment of the insurance benefit, save for the case when it is proven that the undisclosed or undeclared condition was known or should have been known to the insurance company before the insured event occurred.
2.7.6. The burden of proving that one of these cases applies lies with the person who invokes it.
2.7.7. If the insurance company becomes aware of any material condition after the conclusion of the insurance policy, it may, within 15 days of becoming aware of them, propose the amendment of the policy in writing or if the risk under the new circumstances cannot be underwritten, it may terminate the insurance policy in writing giving a 30-day notice.

2.7.8. If the policyholder does not accept the proposed amendment or does not respond to it within 15 days upon receipt of notification thereof, the insurance policy shall be terminated on the 30th day after the notification of the proposed amendment was served. The policyholder shall be advised of this consequence at the same time when the notification with the proposed amendment is served. If the insurance company does not exercise these rights, the insurance policy shall remain in force on the original terms.

2.7.9. If the insurance company becomes aware of an infringement of the disclosure obligation with respect to a relevant material circumstance in the insured’s declaration within the duration of the policy, the insurance company may carry out underwriting for the particular insured, and based on its findings, it may propose an amendment of the insurance policy with respect to the particular insured within 15 days or, if pursuant to these general terms and conditions the insurance company does not underwrite the risks, the insurance company may cancel the insurance policy with respect to the particular insured giving a 30-day written notice of the discovery of the infringement.

2.7.10. If the policyholder does not accept the proposed amendment with respect to a particular insured or does not respond to it within 15 days upon receipt of notification thereof, the insurance policy with respect to the particular insured shall be terminated on the 30th day after the notification of the proposed amendment was served. The policyholder shall be advised of this consequence at the same time when the notification with the proposed amendment is served. If the insurance company does not exercise these rights, the insurance policy shall remain in force on the original terms with respect to the particular insured.

2.8. Insurance premium

2.8.1. The insurance premium is received in consideration of the insurance coverage offered by the Insurance Company. The Insurance Company may claim the insurance premium for the whole period of the insurance coverage.

2.8.2. The insurance premium is required to be paid by the Policyholder.

2.8.3. The Policyholder will have fulfilled his/her obligation to pay the insurance premium at the time when the insurance premium is received on the account of the Insurance Company.

2.8.4. The method and schedule of payment of the insurance premium shall be determined by the Policyholder and the Insurance Company in the health insurance policy.

2.8.5. Parties hereby agree that if the Policyholder fails to pay the insurance premium, the health insurance policy shall terminate on the 30th day following the due date of the insurance premium, even without a written payment reminder sent by the Insurance Company, setting an additional deadline for the payment.

2.8.6. In the event that the insurance policy is terminated due to the non-payment of premiums, the Insurance Company is entitled to claim the insurance premium in proportion to the actual duration of the insurance coverage.

3 Insurance Coverage

3.1. Insured events

3.1.1. The insurance covers medical and health care services provided to the insured during the coverage period by the designated healthcare provider named on the Health Insurance Card to treat the insured’s injuries due to an accident, or his/her illness or medical condition with no prior history relative to the commencement of the insurance coverage.
3.1.2. For the purposes of this clause, a trauma, an illness or a medical condition shall have no prior history relative to the commencement of the insurance coverage if it is not in any way connected with a trauma, illness or medical condition of the insured which existed or was diagnosed or treated before the commencement of the insurance cover of the particular insured, or with a previously determined permanent health impairment.

3.1.3. If the insured’s medical treatment was not provided or arranged by the designated healthcare provider, the Insurance Company will reimburse the costs of such treatment – provided that the claim is otherwise grounded – only if the insured had a medical condition which did not allow him/her to be provided medical care by or under the arrangement of the designated healthcare provider (emergency), and the designated healthcare provider had been notified of the treatment within 48 hours of the beginning of the treatment.

3.1.4. The date of the insured event is the first day when medical care is received. For the purposes of these general terms and conditions, health care services attributable to the same injury, impairment, illness, cause or health problem which occur on the same day or in the course of the same health care treatment and which belong to the same type of service shall be considered as a single insured event.

3.2. General provisions on the payment of insurance benefits and cases of limited benefit payment

3.2.1. In the event of an insured event, the Insurance Company’s obligation to fulfil the insurance claim shall be limited to the arrangement of medical, healthcare and other services specifically stated in the insurance policy, as well as to the reimbursement of the costs thereof, in accordance with the provisions set out in these general conditions (Clause 3.2).

3.2.2. The insurance company's obligation to provide services shall only cover the organization of health care in Hungary and the financing of the costs of such health care.

3.2.3. The Insurance Company shall reimburse the costs of the insured's duly notified, medically reasonable and justified health care treatment, as specified in these policy conditions, provided always that the health care treatment is covered under the insurance and its necessity is evidenced by the insured. Insurance Company shall only reimburse these costs if the tests and examinations are necessary for the exploration or treatment of the illness, and these are performed pursuant to the referral / recommendation of the physician.

3.2.4. Pursuant to Clauses 1.16 and 1.17, the Insurance Company shall reimburse the medical expenses incurred in relation to healthcare services specifically stated in the policy conditions, subject to the annual limit and the sublimits specified in these policy conditions.

3.2.5. When an insurance claim is not grounded or only partly grounded pursuant to the insurance policy, and consequently the Insurance Company is not at all or only party required to pay the insurance benefit, the Insured will be required to pay the part of the costs of the medical care the insured received which is not covered under this insurance directly to the provider of the medical care or to the party which has issued the invoice.

3.2.6. Within the framework of the outpatient treatment, the Insurance Company shall pay for:
   a) the costs of primary medical care,
   b) the cost of specialist medical care,
   c) the costs of laboratory and diagnostic tests (e.g.: blood and urine tests, X-ray diagnostic scans, ultrasound examinations); which the insurance company shall only cover if these are necessary for the diagnosis and treatment of the illness.

3.2.7. The Insurance Company will reimburse the costs of same-day surgeries (within the meaning of Clause 1.10.).

3.2.8. The Insurance Company will reimburse the costs of the insured's hospital stay and treatment in the context of inpatient care. The insurance, in particular, covers:
a) the costs of medical care prescribed by a physician, (including necessary surgeries);
b) the costs of nursing;
c) the costs of therapeutic abortion performed for medical reasons.
d) services related to prenatal care and childbirth financed exclusively by the Hungarian social insurance system.

3.2.9. The Insurance Company will reimburse the costs of medicines, dressings, bandages, and durable medical equipment (products included in the official list of durable medical equipment) necessary for the medical treatment, subject to the annual limit and the sublimit.
The costs of medications, dressings, bandages, and temporary durable medical equipment required for health care must be prepaid by the insured. The Insurance Company will only reimburse the costs of the prepaid services referred to above to the insured if the insurance claim is found to be grounded pursuant to the policy conditions.

3.2.10. Costs of travel or transport to a physician are covered by the insurance if they are within the territory of the country and such transport to the hospital (in an ambulance, taxi) is medically justified.

3.2.11. Patient transport. If the insured becomes immobile or cannot get to a health care institution, the Insurance Company will reimburse the cost of patient transport – not requiring ambulance supervision – within the national borders, if it is necessary to receive healthcare services that are defined as insured events according to the general conditions.

3.2.12. Subject to the annual limit, the insurance covers the costs of a one-time repatriation (transport home) if it is medically necessary (as evidenced in the written opinion of the physician) and also recommended by the designated healthcare provider for the insured to be repatriated back and continue treatment in his or her country of residence.

3.3. Payment of claims
3.3.1. The Insurance Company shall pay the costs of medical care received from the designated healthcare provider, or arranged by or delivered with the cooperation of (notified to and approved by) the designated healthcare provider directly to the designated healthcare provider.

3.3.2. If the insured receives medical treatment at a medical facility other than the designated healthcare provider, or in an emergency in an emergency department or emergency room, the insured may be required to prepay the medical bills.

3.3.3. The Insurance Company shall only reimburse the medical costs of any treatment received in an emergency by an emergency care provider other than the Designated Health Care Provider only if the claim is grounded.

3.3.4. A claim for reimbursement of the cost of a health care service organized by MyPlace Kft. (designated health care provider, registered office: 1021 Budapest, Szépjuhászné út 14-18 E2, VAT number: 24219161-2-41) and prepaid by the insured person must be submitted within 15 days of the date of the invoice to the designated service provider with the following documents attached to the claim:
a) the invoice issued about the delivered medical treatment (listing the healthcare services), or the invoice about the purchase of medications or durable medical equipment, showing the name and address of MyPlace Kft. (as well as the policy number),
b) a copy of all medical documents related to the insured event,
c) the insured’s declaration quoting the bank account number of his/her (HUF) current account in Hungary (signed and dated).

3.3.5. In addition to the documents specified in Clause 3.3.4., the Insurance Company is entitled to require that a copy of the following documents verifying the existence of the legal ground for
The claim and/or necessary for determining the amount of the insurance benefit payable shall also be submitted for the assessment of the insurance claim.

a) if an official investigation was initiated in connection with the circumstances which resulted in an Insured event, all the documents produced or used in the proceedings, as well as the resolution closing the proceedings (in particular the resolution terminating the proceedings, or a binding court decision).

b) To allow for a clarification of all the circumstances of the insured event, the insurance company may require submission of the following documents (e.g.: statement by the insured and/or any other person involved in the insured event about the circumstances of the insured event, the vehicle registration certificate, the accident & injury report made by the employer, educational institution, transportation company/police, experts opinions on the accident/consequences).

c) a standard form furnished by the Insurance Company and completed by the Insured’s treating physician or by the health care provider where the Insured was treated, with medical information related to the insured event, the Insured’s medical condition, and the Insured’s medical history.

d) the insured’s medical documentation produced in connection with the insured event and the insured’s medical history: the medical file issued by a GP/PCP or a company physician, as well as documents produced during outpatient or inpatient care, and documents in proof of the administration of pharmaceuticals;

e) the documents managed by the social insurance body or another person or organization, containing data regarding the Insured with respect to the Insured event or a circumstance leading to such an event (pursuant to the entitled party’s authorization for a release from the confidentiality obligation and for a request of data);

The Insurance Company may also require that all documents necessary for the assessment of the insurance claim but produced in a foreign language shall be translated into Hungarian at the cost of the claimant, and the official translations shall be submitted to the Insurance Company for decision making.

The Insurance Company may require that original copies of such documents are presented and that they are also submitted on a form of electronic media chosen by the customer.

3.3.6. If the documents available do not prove to be sufficient for the assessment of the insurance claim, the Insurance Company shall be entitled to require a medical examination of the Insured by a physician (hereinafter: medical examination required for claim settlement) at the expense of the Insurance Company.

3.3.7. If the documents required by the Insurance Company are not submitted or are incomplete despite a reminder, or if the insured person fails to attend the medical examination required for claim settlement, the Insurance Company will assess the claim on the basis of the documents available.

3.3.8. The Insurance Company shall not be obliged to pay the benefit if the insured or the claimant fails to comply with the obligations set forth in these general conditions, particularly if the time limit for reporting an insured event is not observed and as a result material conditions or circumstances may not be revealed.

3.3.9. The Insurance Company is entitled to obtain additional documents for the adjustment of the insurance claim if such documents are requested within 15 days of receipt of the insurance claim and the request is communicated to the customer.

3.4. Rules of the payment of insurance claims

If the insurance claim is grounded, the prepaid medical expenses shall be reimbursed by the designated service provider, MyPlace Kft or by the Insurance Company, within 15 days upon receipt of all the documents which are necessary for the assessment of the insurance claim, by wire transfer in local legal currency, in respect of covered services and subject to the benefit limits.
When documents are obtained, the Insurance Company is required to pass a decision about the claim within 120 days after receiving the insurance claim, and shall communicate the decision to the customer.

3.5. Exclusions
3.5.1. The insurance does not cover medical and healthcare services or events partly or entirely arising out of or related to any of the following, and any associated costs incurred:

a) the insured’s illness or medical condition which is proven to have existed prior to the effective date of the insurance coverage, or which had been diagnosed prior to the effective date of the insurance coverage, or which required treatment during this time period, or any permanent health impairment of the insured that had been diagnosed prior to the effective date of the insurance coverage, except for treatments which may be provided in the course of primary care, not including the reimbursement of the costs of medicines and durable medical equipment incurred in the course of treatments for pre-existing conditions, unless the insured has been covered under STUDIUM insurance for several insurance periods and the insured’s illness requiring treatment began during these insurance periods and no more than 2 months have elapsed between the commencement of the insured’s coverage under this policy and the expiration date of the previous insurance coverage.

b) healthcare related to contraception, pregnancy (confirmation of pregnancy, antenatal care) or childbirth (including postpartum care), if conception took place prior to the commencement of the insurance coverage applicable to the particular Insured. The insurance covers the costs related to childbirth and hospitalization for childbirth if there is less than 285 days between the estimated due date – stated in a written verification by a physician – and the commencement of the insurance coverage applicable to the particular insured.

c) medical abortion of pregnancy, unless termination of the pregnancy was necessary to preserve the life or health of the mother, or if termination of the pregnancy was performed in a case where pregnancy was the result of a criminal act,

3.5.2. The insurance does not cover occurrences while the insured is covered under the insurance (during the coverage period) and the associated costs incurred, if:
a) the event occurred in relation to Insured’s consumption of alcohol, abuse of drugs, administration of intoxicating substance or pharmaceuticals, unless the latter was administered as prescribed by the treating physician;
b) the insured was demonstrably under the influence of alcohol or drugs or any other intoxicating substance or medication at the time of the event. If a blood alcohol test was administered, for the purposes of this paragraph, the person is ‘under the influence of alcohol’ if his/her blood alcohol concentration exceeds 1.5‰ – or 0.8‰ while driving a motor vehicle,
c) the Insured was driving a motor vehicle without a valid driver’s license or vehicle registration certificate as well at the same time also committed other traffic violations.
d) the Insured was driving a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol when the insured event occurred and at the same time also committed other traffic violations.

3.5.3. The insurance does not cover, furthermore, events caused in whole or in part by:
a) ionizing radiation,
b) nuclear energy,
c) infection by HIV,
d) war, combat operations, hostile actions of foreign forces, civil disorders, coup d’état or attempted coup d’état, riots, civil war, revolution, rebellion, demonstrations, processions, labor acts, terrorist acts, workplace disorder, border conflicts, insurrection.
For the purposes of these conditions warlike events shall mean war (whether war be declared or not), border conflicts, insurrection, revolution, riots, coup d’état or attempted coup d’état, civil war.

3.5.4. Notwithstanding the provisions set forth in Point d) of Clause 3.5.3 above, the insurance covers any injuries to the insured’s health which results from his/her active participation in demonstrations, processions, or strike actions announced in advance and organized in accordance with the provisions of effective Hungarian regulations, provided that the insured has fully complied with his/her obligation to prevent and mitigate the damage.

3.5.5. The insurance does not cover events related causally to the insured's attempted suicide, even if the insured committed the suicide attempt in a state of impaired consciousness.

3.6. Exemptions

3.6.1. The Insurance Company will be released from its obligation to pay the claim if the Insurance Company can prove that the event which resulted in the insured event was caused unlawfully and willfully or unlawfully and in gross negligence by:
a) the insured; or
b) a relative living in the same household with them.

6.2. When an event underlying an insured event occurs, the insured is required to act as generally and reasonably expected in the given situation, and as such promptly seek emergency assistance or medical care (duty to mitigate loss).

The insured’s refusal – in exercising the right of disposition to which he is entitled by virtue of law – to a medical procedure shall not constitute an infringement of the obligation to mitigate damages. The insured must act as generally expected in the given situation to prevent the occurrence of an insured event.

If the insured fails to comply with this obligation, the Insurance Company will be exempt from the benefit payment.
3.6.3. Nothing in the above shall be construed, however, as limiting or restricting the insured in freely choosing a physician or a medical and health care provider.

Section 4 Miscellaneous Provisions

4.1. Limitation period

4.1.1. The limitation period of claims enforceable under the insurance policy shall be 2 (two) years.

4.1.2. If the insured has prepaid the costs of the medical and health care services (Clause 3.3.4.), the limitation period with respect to the Insurance Company’s benefit payment obligation will commence at the following points in time:

a) if the insurance claim is not notified to the Insurance Company, on the day following the last day when the medical and health care services are provided,

b) if an insurance claim is notified to the Insurance Company then on the day following the 15th day after the last document is received by the Insurance Company,

c) if an insurance claim is notified to the Insurance Company and if the documents or information required by the Insurance Company are not submitted or disclosed, on the day following the deadline of the document submission or information provision set out by the Insurance Company, or in the absence of such a deadline, on the day following the 30th day of the issue date of the written communication served for that purpose.

4.2. Dispute resolution procedure

If the customer disputes the position of the Insurance Company in connection with an insurance claim, he/she may request a review of the decision. The review shall be carried out by the competent organizational unit of the Insurance Company within 30 days upon receipt of all documents/data necessary for the assessment of the request and the decision shall be communicated to the customer.

4.3. Policy Provisions that substantially differ from the provisions of the Hungarian Civil Code or standard contractual practice

4.3.1. This chapter summarizes the provisions of the General Terms and Conditions of STUDIUM Fee-for-service Health Insurance (STUDIUM22_2) which substantially differ from the respective provisions of the Hungarian Civil Code (hereinafter also: Ptk) or from standard contractual practice.

4.3.1.1. Within the meaning of Clause 2.2.1 of these policy conditions, and by way of derogation from Section 6:443. (1) of the Civil Code, the insurance policy will be concluded pursuant to an agreement executed in writing by the Policyholder and the Insurance Company.

4.3.1.2. Pursuant to Clause 2.2.5., and by way of derogation from Section 6:475. of the Civil Code, the consent of the insured is not required for concluding, amending and terminating the insurance policy.

4.3.1.3. Pursuant to Clause 2.5.1., and by way of derogation from Section 6:449 (1) of the Civil Code, if the insurance premium for a particular insured is not paid by the due date, the respective insurance coverage shall terminate on the 30th day following the first missed due date, without an additional deadline set for the payment.

4.3.1.4. Within the meaning of Clause 2.7.1.2 of these policy conditions, and by way of derogation from Section 6:451. (1) of the Civil Code, the insured may not replace the Policyholder in the insurance policy.
4.3.1.5. Pursuant to Clause 2.8.4., and by way of derogation from Section 6:449 (1) of the Civil Code, if the Policyholder fails to pay the insurance premium, the health insurance policy shall terminate on the 30th day following the due date of the insurance premium, without an additional deadline set for the payment.

4.3.1.6. The provision on the statute of limitations set out in Clause 4.1.1. of these policy conditions differs from the five (5) year limitation period prescribed in Section 6:22. (1) of the Civil Code. The limitation period for claims arising under this insurance policy shall be 2 (two) years.

4.3.1.7. The Parties expressly agree that, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6:461 of the Civil Code, the Insurance Company may apply the reduction of the limit and pro rata limit without advising the Policyholder thereof and without notifying the fee for maintaining the amount of insurance cover at the same time as the service is provided.
