

OSUN supported projects at CEU (February 2023)

Project title	Purpose	Lead CEU unit
1 Global Teaching Fellowship Program (2022-23)	Extending GTFP to OSUN partner universities: CEU doctoral students and recent graduates teaching for a full academic year at partner universities in the Global South, with mentoring support from CEU's Yehuda Eikana Center for Teaching, Learning, and Higher Education Research	ACRO
2 Socrates Project (2020-23)	Providing university-level humanities and social sciences courses and promoting active learning and critical thinking among the educationally disadvantaged and impoverished adults in the wider communities in Vienna, Budapest and Berlin	Community Engagement Office
3 Democracy Institute (2020-23)	Core support to the DI for the first two years of operation, including doctoral and postdoctoral fellowships, workshops and the development of the DI Open Platform (Review of Democracy)	Democracy Institute
4 Global Institute of Advanced Study (2020-23)	Junior and Senior Fellowships, training and mentoring programs focused on linking established and less advanced researchers for support and promotion of research excellence among OSUN partners	Institute of Advanced Studies
5 ExEd Hub (2020-24)	Developing a package of executive and professional programs and supporting access to these study opportunities by disadvantaged communities and groups; professional development of university administrators; extended for 2022-24 to offer Professional Development Program for University Administrators	ExEd Hub, Eikana Center
6 Open Society Research Platform (2022-23)	Supporting inter- and multidisciplinary research and debate on the concept of open society, its epistemological, theoretical and methodological value and role, and promoting venues for education, policy reflection and analysis, and engagement beyond academia, informed by this research	OSUN Secretariat
7 PhD dissertation write-up (COVID relief) (2021-25)	Supporting the successful completion of doctoral studies, including research and dissertation write-up, of CEU doctoral students negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic	Pro-Rector for Doctoral Studies and Research, Financial Aid
8 OSUN Threatened Scholars Integration Initiative (2021-24)	Promoting and supporting the integration of threatened scholars (scholars at risk) from around the world in academic programs, research and outreach of OSUN institutions, through residential and virtual affiliations; support to threatened students (an OSUN-wide program administered by CEU currently involving 19 partner universities in OSUN)	OSUN Secretariat
9 OSUN Summer University (2022-23)	Delivering interdisciplinary Summer University courses online, developed by CEU and OSUN partners, in summers of 2022 and 2023; scholarship support to students from global South to attend the SUN courses	Summer University
10 GLOBALED - Education Policy and Action Lab	Planning and delivery of the first cycle of the OSUN GLOBALED Certificate Program - a stackable micro-credential combining Coursework and Practicum for students in the field of policy and practice in educational development globally.	Department of Public Policy
11 OSUN Transnational Politics (2022-23)	Teaching 3 courses in MA in Global Studies at CEU, covering stipends and travel costs for 10 CEU students spending Fall term in New York	Department of International Relations
12 Roma Programs: Racial Equity in Higher Education (2022-23)	Funding BA preparatory, BA scholarship and mentoring, MA preparatory, MA scholarship and mentoring, and a PhD scholarship programs for Roma students	Romani Studies Program
13 Rethinking Economic Policy to Address Inequality and Poverty (2021-22)	Offering virtual and physical student exchanges and student conferences to prepare students to work on economic inequality and poverty in government, academia and the non-profit sector	Department of Economics and Business
14 Open Learning Initiative (OLive) (2021-23)	Providing undergraduate and graduate preparation programs (OLive University Preparatory Program and OLive Weekend Program) for refugees in Budapest, Vienna, Berlin and London, in partnership with Bard College Berlin and University of East London	OLive
15 Science Shop (2022-24)	Providing independent participatory research support in response to concerns experienced by civil society by linking community organizations who need data and better understanding of issues at hand that can be obtained through research with students who are interested in carrying out a project as part of their degree	Community Engagement Office
16 CEU-OSUN Budapest Campus Support (2021-23)	Establishing long-term academic operations in Budapest, extending CEU's founding mission of serving the Central European region: teaching and learning, research, academic outreach/civic engagement and cultural activities	Multiple units
17 Policy Labs (2022-23)	Promoting engaged scholarship and innovative pedagogies to advance student learning and faculty exchange in policy and practice through practice-based applied research in partnership with external organizations, typically civil society, NGOs, INGOS, UN and its specialized agencies, and private sector	Department of Public Policy
18 GEOHub: OSUN Research and Training Hub on Geospatial Technologies (2021-23)	Improving the use of geospatial technologies by the OSUN partners to enhance their research/teaching and increase competitiveness - establishing Geo Innovations Hubs in the OSUN core areas	Department of Environmental Sciences and Policy
19 Collaborating for Rural Sustainability (CORUSUS) (2022-23)	Strengthening teaching, learning and research by cultivating cooperation to address the sustainability of rural livelihoods in South Africa, Kyrgyzstan, and Lebanon, whilst bolstering the sharing of knowledge and experience between faculty and students of partner institutions	Department of Environmental Sciences and Policy
20 Developing Teaching Professionals for Global Higher Education (DTP) (2021-23)	Providing pedagogical training, mentoring, and ongoing support to early-career teachers (PhD students; postdoctoral researchers; and new, junior faculty), faculty in the Global South, and faculty engaged in diversity and inclusive teaching initiatives in OSUN	Center for Teaching and Learning
21 Global Corruption Observatory (2021-23)	Setting up a new knowledge and data hub for anti-corruption researchers, policy makers, journalists, and civil society actors and actively support stakeholders in using new and innovative datasets, indicators, and methods for anti-corruption research, teaching/training, advocacy and policy making	Department of Public Policy
22 OSUN Graduate Mobility (2021-23)	Global mobility scheme for Masters and Doctoral students designed collaboratively with OSUN partner institutions, for study and research, including the tuition exchange for self-funded students and needs-based mobility support grants for disadvantaged students	ACRO
23 Experimental Humanities Collaborative Network (2021-23)	Small action research grants for faculty and students aimed at rethinking the engagement in the humanities in light of changing technologies, an increasingly connected global landscape, the ongoing ecological crisis, and calls to create more inclusive universities	Department of History, OSUN Secretariat
24 Network Course Antisemitism, Holocaust, Colonialism, Gender: Connecting the Conversations (2021-23)	Developing and implementing an OSUN Network Course, which will promote new teaching and thinking about the relationship between four distinct, but overlapping, areas of inquiry: antisemitism, the Holocaust, colonialism, and gender	Department of Gender Studies, Department of History
25 Network Courses Digital Theatres, Feminism and Community	Examining a variety of feminist projects and their distinctive shapes, developing practices and theoretical frameworks geared toward assessing, questioning and refashioning women's places, voices and legal status in their communities, thus also addressing notions of community, collectivity, and democracy; Digital Theatres engages with the subject of Romani theatres, community, performativity, representation and exclusion	Department of Gender Studies
26 CEU Faculty Mobility	Global mobility scheme for OSUN Faculty for teaching and research	OSUN Secretariat
27 OSUN Global Observatory on Academic Freedom (2022-2023)	Research Fellowship, development of annual report, case studies, resources repository and conference to advance formulation of the concept of academic freedom and documentation of infringements and good practices and actors worldwide	OSUN Secretariat
28 OSUN Secretariat (2022-2024)	Support capacity to develop and implement OSUN projects at CEU, partner hosting, network events and administration of OSUN programs at CEU	OSUN Secretariat
29 Bard-CEU OSUN Collaboration Support (2022-23)	The grant provides funding for teaching, research and civic engagement collaborations between CEU and Bard College faculty and programs and CEU faculty participation in review and program committees of Bard-led OSUN programs	OSUN Secretariat
30 Bard-CEU Civic Engagement Block Grant	The grant provides funding for OSUN civic engagement projects at CEU	Community Engagement Office
31 Network Collaborative Course Sustainable Local Food in Global Context	Exploring the theory and practice of sustainable eating in a local food system and around the world and examining sustainable food from multiple perspectives: consumers, policy-makers, and farmers/producers.	Department of Environmental Sciences and Policy
32 CEU University-Prison Partnership	Offering free and university-level pilot program on social sciences and humanities to Austrian prison inmates in order to increase employment opportunities and help re-integration processes	Community Engagement Office