What is gender?  What are its relationships with sexuality?  How and why do they matter in personal, social and political ways?  And how can gender be theorized and studied context beyond the modern West change our understanding of gender?  How does gender and sexuality become instrumental in national and transnational, social and political movements?  How can we think critically both in national and transnational, social and political movements?

SPEAKEASY INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP

FINANCIAL AID

CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY